

Coff Winters & Co.
FOR THE BEST
NOTHING ELSE

OPENING.

Watch for the opening announcement of "The Leader," which will mean good news to the ladies of Paris and surrounding territory.

NOTICE

I have moved from Mt. Airy to 124 Tenth street, and would be glad to have my customers call at that address in the future.

(11) MRS. L. DAVIS.

ADJUDGED INSANE

In the County Court, before County Judge George Batterson, Silas Brierly, aged fifty, of Centerville, was tried by a jury on a lunacy charge, and was adjudged to be of unsound mind. He was taken to the Eastern Kentucky Hospital for the insane, at Lexington.

IN NEW POSITION

At a recent meeting of owners of the Big Four Garage in this city, W. S. Hughes resigned as manager. Miriam S. Redmon, of the Paris Realty Co., was elected to succeed him. Mr. Hughes will continue as a partner in the business, with which he will be actively connected.

ATTEND THIS SALE ON FEBRUARY 26TH.

J. R. Bank will sell at public auction, on February 26, at the Geo. Wagoner place, commencing at 2 p. m., all his livestock, crop and farm implements, household and kitchen furniture, automobile, etc. Read the ad in another column.

HOW TO LIVE CHEAP.

Van Camp Pork and Beans, small size 10 cents.
Van Camp Pork and Beans, medium size 15 cents.
Serv-Us Soap, 6 bars for 25 cents.
Serv-Us Soap, 4 cars for 25 cents.
(11) C. P. COOK & CO.

BOY ACCIDENTLY SHOT

A severe scalp wound was sustained by Wallington Parker, fifteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Parker, residing on Maysville street, Saturday. Young Parker was handling a 32-caliber rifle near the Paris Bottling Works plant, when the weapon was accidentally discharged. The bullet glanced upward, cutting the boy's scalp. He was removed to his home, where his wound was dressed by Dr. W. C. Ussery. He is not seriously injured.

BOURBON MEN MOVING TO NEW HOMES.

George Bramblette, of Millersburg, will move to his farm at the intersection of the Paris and Pretty Run pikes, in Clark county, after March 1. Mr. Bramblette has disposed of his property in Millersburg and will devote all his time to farming in the future.

J. T. McCray, of North Middletown, will after the first of March, be associated with the Rock Asphalt Company, and will be located at Kyrock, in the western part of the State. Mr. McCray has for several years been engaged in farming on the North Middletown and Plum Lack pike, near North Middletown.

PICTURE PROGRAM AT ALAMO AND GRAND.

To-day, Tuesday, February 22—M. B. Warner, in "One Hour Before Dawn"; William Duncan and Edith Johnson, in sixth episode of "Fighting Fate"; Pathe News.

To-morrow, Wednesday, February 23—Blanche Sweet, in "The Girl in the Web"; comedy classic, "The Pezama Marriage"; Topics of the Day.

Thursday, February 24—Stuart Holmes and Ellen Cassidy, in "Love, Honor and ?"; Ruth Roland, in thirteenth episode of "Ruth of the Rockies"; Pathe News.
Gregg's Orchestra plays afternoon and night.

WILL MAKE THEIR HOME IN PARIS.

As resident manager of the Paris Ice Manufacturing Co.'s plant, Mr. John R. Solar, of Covington, will move to Paris soon bringing his family with him.

In a talk with Mr. Solar, Saturday he stated that he was anxious to meet the business people of Paris, and that he wanted to assure them there would be a plentiful supply of ice here this summer. The new improvements being made and contemplated will enable them, he said to meet any kind of competition. Mr. Solar is an amiable, genial gentleman and will be a valuable addition to the business life of Paris.

BOURBON HORSE SENT TO LEXINGTON TRAINER.

Martha T., (2) 2:19 1/2, owned by W. F. Talbott, of Paris, has been sent by her owner to Trainer John E. Dickerson, at Lexington, who will race her the coming season. She has two stake engagements. Martha T. won at the Blue Grass and Kentucky State fairs the past season, which were her only starts.

Martha T.'s sister to the good mare, Nancy Baldwin, 2:10 1/2, raced for several years by Douglas Thomas, of Paris. The only other foal of her dam is McMillan, 2:15 1/4, to which horse she is also a full sister, the trio being by Egyptian sires, out of a

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Comings and Goings of Our People Here, There and Elsewhere.

—Owen Gibson is in Detroit, Mich., on a business mission.

—Clay McCann has returned from a business trip to Shelby county.

—Jos. M. Hall is confined to his home on Duncan avenue by illness.

—Miss Mary Louise Clendenin has returned to Georgetown, after a visit to her father, R. F. Clendenin.

—R. O. Chambers, of Mayeville, is a guest of his daughter, Mrs. Robert M. Johnson, of Mt. Airy avenue.

—The Business Circle of the Women's Club held a meeting last night for the purpose of parliamentary drill, in the Y. M. C. A.

—Andrew J. Gorey has returned to his home in Covington, after a visit to his brother, Edward H. Gorey, and family, in this city.

—The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson, who recently underwent an operation for adenoids, at the Massie Memorial Hospital, is improving.

—Mrs. Samuel W. Willis, of Paris, was one of the guests last week at a sewing party given in Winchester by her daughter, Mrs. Vaughn Drake.

—Mrs. Amelia Vansant and daughter, Miss Rebecca, have returned to their home in Flemingsburg, after a visit to relatives and friends in this city.

—L. G. McCurdy, of Nonesuch, Ky., was a recent business visitor in Paris. Mr. McCurdy contemplates making his permanent home in Paris in the future.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Kenney Ferguson and little daughter have returned from a visit to Mrs. Ferguson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Ford Offutt, in Georgetown.

—The Mothers' Club of North Middletown will present the Kentucky University Glee Club in recital on Friday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Christian church.

—Mrs. Thomas Henry Clay, Sr., who suffered a slight stroke of paralysis at her home on Pleasant street, last week, was reported yesterday as being greatly improved.

—Mrs. Robert L. Frank returned Sunday from an extended visit to Mr. and Mrs. Irvin M. Keller, in Montclair, New Jersey, and Mr. and Mrs. John A. Fitzgerald, in New York City.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gleason, of Paris, on Saturday made application at the office of Deputy U. S. Clerk Spencer Fennell, in Lexington, for passports to Cuba. They expect to leave about March 15 for a three-months' stay.

—Dr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Hally, of Lexington, were guests Friday evening at a dining given by Mrs. Lucy Simms, at her home on Second street, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Simms, of Beaumont, Texas.

—M. H. H. Davis, of Couer de Lion Commandery No. 26, Knights Templar, of Paris, was in Somerset recently, where he made an official inspection of Somerset Commandery No. 31. Mr. Davis is an officer of the Kentucky Grand Lodge.

—One of the big events of the college year will be the production of "The Christian" by the Stagecrafters of Transylvania at the Lexington Opera House, on Friday evening, February 25. Prof. and Mrs. Lee Kirkpatrick, of Paris, are among the patrons for the event.

—The Health and Welfare League will celebrate its seventh birthday next Thursday, February 24. The annual business and social meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. James McClure, on Vine street, at three o'clock. The reports for the year will be given. All members of the League are urged to be present.

—Among the Paris people who attended the annual meeting and luncheon of the Maryland Avenue Sisterhood, held in the ball room of the Lafayette Hotel, in Lexington, Thursday, were Mrs. Louis Wollstein, Mrs. David Bachrach, Mrs. A. J. Winters, Mrs. Charles S. Goldstein, Mrs. Lee Price, Mrs. I. L. Price, Mrs. Lawrence Price, Mrs. J. A. Stern.

—Charles N. Taylor, for many years chief lineman for the Western Union Telegraph Company in this district, with headquarters in Paris, has gone to Baltimore, Md., where he will enter a hospital for treatment. Mr. Taylor fractured a bone in his shoulder some months ago, which has never entirely healed. During his absence G. O. Dunnigan, of Columbia, Miss., will attend to the duties of Mr. Taylor's position.

—One of the most brilliant social events of the season was the State Centre dance given at the Masonic Temple, in this city, Friday night, promoted by James McClintock and Vail Baldwin. The hours were from 9:00 p. m. to 4:00 a. m. Music was furnished by Smith's Sextette. A large crowd was present, including many from Mt. Sterling, Winchester, Lexington, Richmond, Danville, Carlisle, Millersburg and other surrounding towns.

—Messages received in this city from Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan Bell, of Paris, state they are having the time of their lives on their southern trip. A letter written to them at that time at Nassau, in the Bahamas Islands, where they had been having an enjoyable time. They had made an airplane ascension, and had made one trip in a Government hydroplane besides paying a visit to points of interest through the Islands.

—CLUB CALENDAR — Bourbon County Women's Club, Wednesday, February 23—Reading from Tagore. Mrs. May Stoner Clay, Music: Current Events. Mothers' Club of North Middletown, Wednesday, February 23—Exhibition of Manual Training done by the boys: Plans for Spring Gardening. North Middletown Women's Club, Friday, February 25, 2:30 p. m.—American —Piano Selections, Miss Frances Thomason.

—Miss Florence Cook, of Georgetown, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Cook, in North Middletown.

—Little Miss Jennie Elmata Taylor, who has been ill, at the home of her father, J. E. Taylor, is improving.

—Mr. and Mrs. Catesby Woodford will leave this week for a visit to friends and relatives at Useppa Island, Florida.

—Misses Ruth Leslie and Leah Whitaker, of Cynthiana, were weekend guests of the former's sister, Mrs. S. T. Ruddle, on Stoner avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Houston, Mrs. C. P. Willmott and Keith Spears were expected home last night from Jacksonville, St. Augustine and other points in Florida.

—Miss Lida Haford, of Lexington, who is at the Washington headquarters of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, states that among the many Kentucky clubs that have applied recently for admission are the Bourbon County Woman's Club and the North Middletown Woman's Club.

—J. P. Siderer, of Lexington, is a guest of his sister, Mrs. Ira Parks, on Walker avenue. Their sister, Mrs. Mattie L. King, is a patient at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, where she underwent an operation recently. Mrs. King was reported yesterday as being in a serious condition.

RELIGIOUS.

—The Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet today in the church parlors. A full attendance is desired.

—Rev. Father Thomas Coleman, pastor of the Church of The Annunciation, in this city, will deliver the Lenten sermon to-night in St. Luke's Catholic church, in Nicholasville.

—The "Father-and-Son" banquet held at the Christian church last night was one of the really enjoyable events of the kind that has been held here recently. Covers were laid for three hundred guests, and there were no vacant places. The ladies of the church served an elaborate two-course supper, to which the assembled guests paid their respects. Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the church, presided as toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was Rev. Dr. Peter Ainslie, of Baltimore, Md., who has just concluded a successful revival meeting in the Richmond church. Rev. Dr. A. W. Fortune, of Transylvania College, and Rev. Homer Carpenter, pastor of Richmond Christian church, who were expected to be present and deliver addresses, were unable to come. A musical program of excellent selections was also a feature of the occasion.

—The Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet today in the church parlors. A full attendance is desired.

—Rev. Father Thomas Coleman, pastor of the Church of The Annunciation, in this city, will deliver the Lenten sermon to-night in St. Luke's Catholic church, in Nicholasville.

—The "Father-and-Son" banquet held at the Christian church last night was one of the really enjoyable events of the kind that has been held here recently. Covers were laid for three hundred guests, and there were no vacant places. The ladies of the church served an elaborate two-course supper, to which the assembled guests paid their respects. Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the church, presided as toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was Rev. Dr. Peter Ainslie, of Baltimore, Md., who has just concluded a successful revival meeting in the Richmond church. Rev. Dr. A. W. Fortune, of Transylvania College, and Rev. Homer Carpenter, pastor of Richmond Christian church, who were expected to be present and deliver addresses, were unable to come. A musical program of excellent selections was also a feature of the occasion.

—The Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet today in the church parlors. A full attendance is desired.

—Rev. Father Thomas Coleman, pastor of the Church of The Annunciation, in this city, will deliver the Lenten sermon to-night in St. Luke's Catholic church, in Nicholasville.

—The "Father-and-Son" banquet held at the Christian church last night was one of the really enjoyable events of the kind that has been held here recently. Covers were laid for three hundred guests, and there were no vacant places. The ladies of the church served an elaborate two-course supper, to which the assembled guests paid their respects. Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the church, presided as toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was Rev. Dr. Peter Ainslie, of Baltimore, Md., who has just concluded a successful revival meeting in the Richmond church. Rev. Dr. A. W. Fortune, of Transylvania College, and Rev. Homer Carpenter, pastor of Richmond Christian church, who were expected to be present and deliver addresses, were unable to come. A musical program of excellent selections was also a feature of the occasion.

—The Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet today in the church parlors. A full attendance is desired.

—Rev. Father Thomas Coleman, pastor of the Church of The Annunciation, in this city, will deliver the Lenten sermon to-night in St. Luke's Catholic church, in Nicholasville.

—The "Father-and-Son" banquet held at the Christian church last night was one of the really enjoyable events of the kind that has been held here recently. Covers were laid for three hundred guests, and there were no vacant places. The ladies of the church served an elaborate two-course supper, to which the assembled guests paid their respects. Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the church, presided as toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was Rev. Dr. Peter Ainslie, of Baltimore, Md., who has just concluded a successful revival meeting in the Richmond church. Rev. Dr. A. W. Fortune, of Transylvania College, and Rev. Homer Carpenter, pastor of Richmond Christian church, who were expected to be present and deliver addresses, were unable to come. A musical program of excellent selections was also a feature of the occasion.

—The Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet today in the church parlors. A full attendance is desired.

—Rev. Father Thomas Coleman, pastor of the Church of The Annunciation, in this city, will deliver the Lenten sermon to-night in St. Luke's Catholic church, in Nicholasville.

—The "Father-and-Son" banquet held at the Christian church last night was one of the really enjoyable events of the kind that has been held here recently. Covers were laid for three hundred guests, and there were no vacant places. The ladies of the church served an elaborate two-course supper, to which the assembled guests paid their respects. Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the church, presided as toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was Rev. Dr. Peter Ainslie, of Baltimore, Md., who has just concluded a successful revival meeting in the Richmond church. Rev. Dr. A. W. Fortune, of Transylvania College, and Rev. Homer Carpenter, pastor of Richmond Christian church, who were expected to be present and deliver addresses, were unable to come. A musical program of excellent selections was also a feature of the occasion.

—The Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet today in the church parlors. A full attendance is desired.

—Rev. Father Thomas Coleman, pastor of the Church of The Annunciation, in this city, will deliver the Lenten sermon to-night in St. Luke's Catholic church, in Nicholasville.

—The "Father-and-Son" banquet held at the Christian church last night was one of the really enjoyable events of the kind that has been held here recently. Covers were laid for three hundred guests, and there were no vacant places. The ladies of the church served an elaborate two-course supper, to which the assembled guests paid their respects. Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the church, presided as toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was Rev. Dr. Peter Ainslie, of Baltimore, Md., who has just concluded a successful revival meeting in the Richmond church. Rev. Dr. A. W. Fortune, of Transylvania College, and Rev. Homer Carpenter, pastor of Richmond Christian church, who were expected to be present and deliver addresses, were unable to come. A musical program of excellent selections was also a feature of the occasion.

—The Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet today in the church parlors. A full attendance is desired.

—Rev. Father Thomas Coleman, pastor of the Church of The Annunciation, in this city, will deliver the Lenten sermon to-night in St. Luke's Catholic church, in Nicholasville.

—The "Father-and-Son" banquet held at the Christian church last night was one of the really enjoyable events of the kind that has been held here recently. Covers were laid for three hundred guests, and there were no vacant places. The ladies of the church served an elaborate two-course supper, to which the assembled guests paid their respects. Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the church, presided as toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was Rev. Dr. Peter Ainslie, of Baltimore, Md., who has just concluded a successful revival meeting in the Richmond church. Rev. Dr. A. W. Fortune, of Transylvania College, and Rev. Homer Carpenter, pastor of Richmond Christian church, who were expected to be present and deliver addresses, were unable to come. A musical program of excellent selections was also a feature of the occasion.

—The Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet today in the church parlors. A full attendance is desired.

—Rev. Father Thomas Coleman, pastor of the Church of The Annunciation, in this city, will deliver the Lenten sermon to-night in St. Luke's Catholic church, in Nicholasville.

—The "Father-and-Son" banquet held at the Christian church last night was one of the really enjoyable events of the kind that has been held here recently. Covers were laid for three hundred guests, and there were no vacant places. The ladies of the church served an elaborate two-course supper, to which the assembled guests paid their respects. Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the church, presided as toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was Rev. Dr. Peter Ainslie, of Baltimore, Md., who has just concluded a successful revival meeting in the Richmond church. Rev. Dr. A. W. Fortune, of Transylvania College, and Rev. Homer Carpenter, pastor of Richmond Christian church, who were expected to be present and deliver addresses, were unable to come. A musical program of excellent selections was also a feature of the occasion.

—The Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet today in the church parlors. A full attendance is desired.

—Rev. Father Thomas Coleman, pastor of the Church of The Annunciation, in this city, will deliver the Lenten sermon to-night in St. Luke's Catholic church, in Nicholasville.

—The "Father-and-Son" banquet held at the Christian church last night was one of the really enjoyable events of the kind that has been held here recently. Covers were laid for three hundred guests, and there were no vacant places. The ladies of the church served an elaborate two-course supper, to which the assembled guests paid their respects. Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the church, presided as toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was Rev. Dr. Peter Ainslie, of Baltimore, Md., who has just concluded a successful revival meeting in the Richmond church. Rev. Dr. A. W. Fortune, of Transylvania College, and Rev. Homer Carpenter, pastor of Richmond Christian church, who were expected to be present and deliver addresses, were unable to come. A musical program of excellent selections was also a feature of the occasion.

—The Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet today in the church parlors. A full attendance is desired.

—Rev. Father Thomas Coleman, pastor of the Church of The Annunciation, in this city, will deliver the Lenten sermon to-night in St. Luke's Catholic church, in Nicholasville.

—The "Father-and-Son" banquet held at the Christian church last night was one of the really enjoyable events of the kind that has been held here recently. Covers were laid for three hundred guests, and there were no vacant places. The ladies of the church served an elaborate two-course supper, to which the assembled guests paid their respects. Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the church, presided as toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was Rev. Dr. Peter Ainslie, of Baltimore, Md., who has just concluded a successful revival meeting in the Richmond church. Rev. Dr. A. W. Fortune, of Transylvania College, and Rev. Homer Carpenter, pastor of Richmond Christian church, who were expected to be present and deliver addresses, were unable to come. A musical program of excellent selections was also a feature of the occasion.

—The Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet today in the church parlors. A full attendance is desired.

—Rev. Father Thomas Coleman, pastor of the Church of The Annunciation, in this city, will deliver the Lenten sermon to-night in St. Luke's Catholic church, in Nicholasville.

THIS PROVES That the Pen is Mightier Than the Sword

There is No Sword that Could Cut Prices on Merchandise LIKE THIS PEN HAS!

Men's Suits . . $15, $18.50, $20

No Overcoat Higher Than . . $25

and Many as Low as $15

Men's Union Suits . . . $1.50 and $1.75

Here's One for the Boys!

Choice of any Mackinaw $7.45

(VALUES TO $15.00)

Added Attraction

Men's Hose . . . 15c Pair

Two Pairs for 25c

See Windows

LEWIS WOLLSTEIN

Twin Bros.' Clothing and Shoe Department

619 Main Street

"Trade at Home" Call Our Store "Home"

RUGS

TREMENDOUS REDUCTIONS

During Our February and March Cash Sale

Every rug in our store is included in this sale.

We will, we firmly believe, save you more money now than we can any other time during the year, not only on Rugs, Linoleums, Lace Curtains and Wall Paper, but also on anything in any kind of furniture.

Buy Now at Our February and March Cash Sale

THE J. T. HINTON CO.

EITHERPHONE 36 PARIS, KENTUCKY SIXTH AND MAIN

Motor Hearse—Motor Invalid Coach—Undertaking

J. T. Hinton & Co.
If it comes from Davis it is right